

LIST OF BFCMA MEMBERS

(British Flue and Chimney Manufacturers Association)

The British Flue & Chimney Manufacturers' Association is Britain's only Trade Association for factory-made chimney products and works closely with Government, public bodies and other organisations to further the interest of the chimney & flue industry.

The Association represents the interests of the Members and aims to:

- Promote the efficient and safe use of natural draught chimneys and encourage continual improvement of chimney products and services for the benefit of members' customers.
- Obtain maximum publicity for the industry through exhibitions, publishing information sheets and general public relations.
- Influence legislation, regulations and policies, at national & international levels, that affect the chimney industry in general.
- Develop and promote high standards of quality, design, safety and workmanship in the industry.
- Encourage uniform standards of Education and Training at all levels throughout the Industry.
- Co-ordinate Technical and Market Research into areas of common interest identified by Members.
- Work to improve trading conditions and promote trading opportunities for its Members in home and overseas markets.
- Represent the U.K. chimney industry at European and international levels.
